A: It's NOT possible - due to the fact that to get the serial number of the Simulator, you need to use the Crack (The software is "half open", with the screen and buttons open and the simulator running, so you can see the serial number running within the simulator - it's the only way). You CAN not open any license files from inside the Crack. You NEED the License Files to run - the Crack needs to know the rights of the license, and needs to run the license files which the SIMulator is using to verify the rights. AIDA64 Extreme Engineer Edition 5.92.4391 Crack.Q: if H is not abelian, then $H\lhd N$ This is a homework question which bothers me: G is a group of order 8. Let H be a normal subgroup of G. Show that if H is not abelian, then $H\lhd N$ I have already done the following: G is a group of order 8. H is a normal subgroup of G. H is not abelian. This is a contradiction. Therefore, $H\lhd N$. It seems to me that the last statement is valid because of the following fact: Let G be a group. We say that $H\lhd G$ if and only if $g_2Hg_1\subseteq H$, for any $g_1,g_2\in G$. My only question is that I feel that my proof is not valid because I did not use the fact that G is a group, and also, why is it possible to show that $H\lhd N$? A: Your proof is right, but you probably meant to say "since $g_2Hg_1\subseteq H$ for any $g_1,g_2\in N$. In particular, this holds for any $g_1,g_2\in G$." Q: Sorting a List in reverse I want to sort a List of Currency objects, which are all exchange rate objects, based on their currency type (i.e. USD, GBP, EUR, AUS, USD, USD, etc. in that order). The Currency object contains a currency type and a value. When the currencies are sorted by currency type, the values must be arranged in reverse order. What's the most efficient way to do this? A: This can be done with a couple of linq to objects calls. There's also a custom IComparer to tell linq to order it for you: var sortedCuren 1cdb36666d
